THE UNIVERSITY OF TEXAS

The University of Texas begins its 84th year of service to citizens of the Lone Star State this fall.

On Sept. 15, 1883, the first students began attending classes on the Forty Acres.

But the University has had a close connection with Texas ever since the days of the Republic. As early as 1837, the Second Congress of the Republic heard a bill suggesting a statewide educational institution.

DR. HARRY RANSOM
Chancellor

DR. NORMAN HACKERMAN
Vice-Chancellor

Since its opening, the University has had a triple goal—serving the state through an outstanding program of instruction, research and public service.

Component units of the far-flung University system are located at Austin, Galveston, Houston, Dallas, El Paso, Arlington and San Antonio, each with its own role in UT's overall objectives.

Dr. Harry H. Ransom is chancellor of the entire system. Dr. Norman Hackerman is charged primarily with developing academic programs at the Main University.

Aside from the Main University at Austin, the system includes these units:

The Medical Branch at Galveston, the Dental Branch at Houston, the M. D. Anderson Hospital and Tumor Institute at Houston, the Graduate School of Biomedical Sciences at Houston, the Southwestern Medical School at Dallas, Texas Western College at El Paso, Arlington State College at Arlington and the new South Texas Medical School at San Antonio.

Research units of the Main University include the Institute of Marine Science at Port Aransas and McDonald Observatory near Fort Davis.

OUTLOOK FOR 1966

GENERAL—Exciting and unpredictable. This should be the theme, of the 1966 Texas Longhorn team if spring training is any basis. Texas will be a young and interesting team to watch. All of the holdovers from the national championship team are gone and a new crop of sophomores will be the key to success in the next few years. Texas has 19 sophomores in its top 44 players and will start Sept. 1 with eight sophs in the first 22 positions. In the final spring game 11 of the 22 starters were freshmen but two veterans did not participate in spring practice. After losing but three games in a string of 55 over the last six years, the roof fell in on the Longhorns last fall and the 6-4 record was the worst in Darrell Royal's nine years as head coach of the Orange and White. Eight lettermen are missing off the 1965 club including seven starters representing 11 positions. Eleven starters are among the 22 returning lettermen. Four of these returnees are on offense and seven are on the defensive platoon. Thus the offense will be heavily loaded with rookies while the defense will be sprinkled liberally with veteran lettermen. A crowd of 9,000 fans, largest in history of the Texas spring games, came out of Memorial Stadium to watch the Longhorns wind up spring practice. And they were treated to a thrilling, 29-21 Orange victory over the Whites. Soph quarterbacks Bill Bradley and Andy White each threw two touchdown passes with White's Orange team coming from behind to edge Bradley's unit. Bradley electrified the crowd with a 73-yard punt return early in the game.

TOP HANDS—The 11 starters returning plus Wingback Greg Lott, Fullback Linus Baer and a host of fine prospective first-year men. All-America Candidate Diron Talbert, John Elliott and Barney Giles are the elected tri-captains. They'll be joined on the defensive unit by Bob Stanley, Fred Edwards, Ronnie Ehrig and Gary Moore. Offensive starters back are Gene Bledsoe, Howard Goad, Kelly Baker and Tailback Jim Helms.

TOP SOPHS—Backs Bradley, White and Chris Gilbert on offense and Dick Watt, Scooter Monzingo and Denny Aldridge on defense, defensive guard D. H. Martin and offensive linemen Tom Higgins, Ken Gidney, Danny Abbott and Tommy Souders. After spring training Bradley, Gilbert and Watt had won starting backfield berths while in the line Martin, Higgins, Gidney, Abbott and Souders took over No. 1 positions.

STRONG POINTS—Defensive line and linebackers. The experienced defensive eight-man front is composed of ends Bill Sullivan and Giles, tackles Elliott and Bob Stanley, guards Talbert and Martin and linebackers Fred Edwards and Joel Brame.

WEAKNESSES—Lack of experience on the offensive unit and in the defensive secondary and lack of depth everywhere. With safety Gary Moore possibly moving to fullback to fill a gap there, the defensive secondary is left with Ronnie Ehrig as the only experienced hand.

NEW OFFENSE—Texas switched to the "I" formation in the spring and will use this in 1966 but will continue to flip-flop the line. The "I" is explained elsewhere in this brochure.

SUB PLAN—Texas made the conversion to two-platoon ball in the spring after several years of working all players both ways. The squad will be worked separately by platoons.

POSITION CHANGES—Greg Lott, from quarterback to No. 1 wingback; John Elliott from defensive guard to defensive tackle; Ken Gidney from offensive guard to offensive center and Barry Stone from offensive end to offensive tackle.

2 MISSED SPRING—End Bill Sullivan missed the spring workouts recuperating from a knee operation and Gary Moore was excused to play varsity baseball. Two others—wingback Les Derrick and lineman Loyd Wainscott—missed most of the practice after getting hurt the first week.

ROYAL OBSERVATIONS

ON 1966 PROSPECTS—"If we field all our punts and don't fumble, we'll be up there somewhere (in conference), if we don't get any injuries. We're razor thin. We have too many sophomores out there to be outstanding, though."

ON SOPHOMORES—"We have more sophomores than we've had for quite a while. We had 11 of them playing on the first offensive or defensive team (during spring training). We lettered 18 in 1961—but most of them were on the third team. Our first team didn't play in the fourth quarter (in 1961) until the TCU game."

ON "REKINDLING THINGS" (AFTER 6–4 YEAR)—"Nothing rekindles it like personnel. We didn't recruit well for two or three years—and we're paying for it now. That's the reason we're playing so many sophomores. When you have a sick squad from bad recruiting for a couple of years, you don't cure it for a couple of years. I think we're on the road to curing it."

ON FULLBACKS—"We've got a real problem there. I don't think it's out of the question to ask Linus Baer, Gary Moore or Denny Aldridge to play there. I might say this: Jimmy Graham has done a pretty good job. As things stand now, he's it. But we've had a hard time keeping him on the field because of injuries."

ON SPLIT END SPOT—"Tom Higgins has looked pretty good, but it's not solved by a long shot. We might try Les Derrick there. And maybe Greg Lott."

ON SPECIFIC SOPHOMORES—"I think that any of the sophomores you see up there have promise. They're not up there by guesswork—but the reason so many are up there is because our squad's not as strong as it has been. Bill Bradley's a good athlete and a good competitor with leadership qualities."

ON KICKING—"Bradley will be the punter although David Conway kicks as well. If our defense comes along, we might do some quick-kicking on early downs. We'd come out quick in a simple old double wing the way we did with Walter Fondren and James Saxton."

1966 INTRA-SQUAD GAME

Down 15–0 early in the second period, the Orange rallied strongly behind QB Andy White to beat the White, 29–21, in the April 5 intra-squad game that wound up Texas' spring drills.

White and his counterpart for the losing squad, Bill Bradley, had hands in all the scoring. Bradley personally accounted for the three White TD's, scoring one and passing for the other two.

Jim Helms ran 9 yards for the final TD with 4:40 remaining to increase a shaky 22–21 Orange lead.

The Orange piled up 410 total yards (309 rushing) to the White's 276 total (183 rushing) and had a 25–16 advantage in first downs.

DEPTH CHART FOR 1966

Subject to changes in pre-season fall workouts, here is an educated guess as to how the Longhorns will line up this fall. THE DEFENSE

Texas uses a basic 6–2–2–1 defense with two linebackers, two defensive halfbacks and a safety man. In coaching circles it's called an eight-man front with a three-deep secondary.

THE OFFENSE

After several years of the Winged-T formation, Texas switched to the "I" offense in the spring and will use this new formation in 1966.

Texas has used the Winged-T for several years and began flip-flopping the line in 1961.

In the new formation, the Longhorns will align the tailback directly behind the fullback. The attack also will feature a split end opposite the wingback.

Says Coach Darrell Royal about the "I":

"There are some advantages, or we wouldn't go to it. We're doing it for rollout purposes. To get the four blockers we need in front of the quarterback, we used to have to send a tailback in motion behind the fullback. This was a tipoff that we were going to roll out. You can go either way with it from the "I". Also you can use your fullback as a lead blocker to any place in the line."

FINE OPENING-GAME RECORD

Texas has lost but five opening games in 73 seasons. The first blemish was in 1936 when LSU played Texas to a 6-6 tie. All five losses have been since 1938. Texas has lost these openers: 1938—18–19 to Kansas; 1953—7-20 to LSU; 1955—14-20 to Texas Tech; 1956—20-44 to Southern California; 1960—13-14 to Nebraska.

TEXAS' TOP INDIVIDUALS

DEFENSIVE PLATOON

GUARD DIRON TALBERT. Co-captain. Third Talbert to play for Coach Royal. Outstanding defensively. All-Southwest Conference. Big, rangy, strong. Quick reactions. Tough, aggressive. One of the SWC's best linemen for two years, he should be one of the top men in the country as a senior. All-America candidate.

TACKLE JOHN ELLIOTT. Co-captain. Has had two excellent seasons at Texas. Good speed and excellent reactions. Top-notch ball hawk. Good blocker, but his defensive abilities and his speed will have him playing defense this fall. Should be one of the better defensive linemen in the conference, if he escapes injuries in '66.

END BARNEY GILES. Co-captain. Another who has good offensive capabilities, but who will be used on defense. Solid veteran who played good football the last two years. Should be a standout defensive end as a senior, as good as any in the SWC.

LINEBACKER FRED EDWARDS. Already has earned a reputatin as being an outstanding linebacker. Teamed with Tommy Nobis for two years, and they were an outstanding duo. Edwards, with greater experience, should have his best year. He's tough.

HALFBACK RONNIE EHRIG. Played a lot of football as a soph. Quick-reacting and intelligent. Has good offensive capabilities (as in spring training), but is more valuable on defense. Good tackler with an instinct for the football.

OFFENSIVE PLATOON

TACKLE GENE BLEDSOE. Another who has played two years of good football. Injuries have slowed him at times. Standout blocker. Will rank up with SWC's top offensive linemen.

WINGBACK GREG LOTT. Showed a lot as a sophomore QB. Moved to wingback in spring and looked real good with his fine speed and pass-catching ability. Explosive runner and has good moves as receiver; constantly beat the defensive man all spring.

TAILBACK JIM HELMS. After recovering from injuries that have plagued him at UT, should have a fine senior year. Had a good spring, ran well and hard. Had big day against A&M in '65 windup, should go on from there.

BACK LINUS BAER. If he escapes injuries, he should have a big season. Good spring, impressed as a runner and a pass catcher. Has ability to be outstanding.

KICKER

DAVID CONWAY. In two seasons, has kicked 48 of 51 extra points (including bowl game) and 15 of 28 field goals. As 1965 punter, had 43.3-yard average and led the nation much of the season.

SOPHOMORES TO WATCH

THREE NEW COACHES

Three new coaches joined the Texas football staff this past spring —Freddy Akers, from Lubbock High; Leon Manley, from Northeast Louisiana State, and Tom Ellis, from Oklahoma State University.

DARRELL ROYAL

Director of Athletics—Head Football Coach

The University of Texas' winningest football coach, Darrell Royal, begins his 10th season as boss of the Longhorns in September of 1966.

The 42-year-old head coach and athletic director has compiled a record of 75 victories, 19 defeats and three ties during his nine years at Texas. Add to this his three-year record at Mississippi State and Washington and you get an outstanding 12-year career record of 92–32–3.

Named coach of the year twice in recent seasons, Royal has guided Texas to seven bowl games, four Southwest Conference championships, two undefeated seasons and the 1963 national championship, first in the school's history.

Needing only eight more victories to reach the 100 figure, Royal may be one of the youngest coaches ever to reach that victory level. The few coaches who have won 100 games almost always have been near, or beyond, 50 years of age.

Royal began his career as a head coach with Edmonton of the Canadian League in 1953. He previously had served one year each as assistant at North Carolina State, Tulsa and Mississippi State.

In 1954, he was named head coach at Mississippi State. After two years there, he moved to the University of Washington for the 1956 season—and then on to his remarkable association with the University of Texas.

Summoned to UT to direct the Longhorns up the comeback trail following a 1–9 season in 1956, the talented Irishman has built up an unmatched record on the Forty Acres.

Royal's first season at Texas (1957) resulted in a 6–3–1 record and a Sugar Bowl berth. He boosted the Longhorns all the way from their 1956 cellar spot to second place in the Southwest Conference standings.

The second phase of his recovery program (1958) paid such dividends as a 7-3 record, a sweep of non-conference games and UT's first victory over Oklahoma since 1951. And the Longhorns haven't lost to the Sooners since.

Then came 1959—a 9–1 season that earned a share of the SWC championship (UT's first such success since '53) and the host's spot in the Cotton Bowl game. The 1959 Longhorns, highly-rated all year, finished No. 4 in the Associated Press poll.

The 1960 Longhorns, losing a couple of early one-pointers, rallied to end the season with four straight victories, good for a 7–3 season and a Bluebonnet Bowl berth opposite Alabama.

Royal's 1961 powerhouse earned praise as one of the greatest football teams in UT history. The Longhorns, who made the "flip-flop" a popular expression in football, held down the No. 1 spot in both wire-service polls until they were upset 6–0 by TCU. But they came back to cap a tremendous season by beating Mississippi 12–7 in a great Cotton Bowl game.

The 1962 club became Texas' first undefeated team since 1923, and has been described by Royal as "my finest defensive team." That '62 squad won classic come-from-behind games with Oregon, Arkansas and Texas A&M while on its way to a 9–0–1 record.

In 1963, everything came the Longhorns' way. They went 11-0, including their great 28-6 Cotton Bowl trouncing of Navy, and were declared No. 1 by all the pollsters. Memorable in the season were a 7-0 victory over Baylor and a gallant fourth-quarter rally that beat Texas A&M, 15-13, and saved the national championship.

The 1964 season, a fine one, turned out to be a "near miss" as Arkansas won a 14–13 decision to knock the Longhorns out of the No. 1 ranking. But that '64 squad came back to finish 9–1—then impressed everybody everywhere with a 21–17 Orange Bowl victory over No. 1-rated Alabama.

In 1965, the Longhorns lost four games (more than in any other season in the Royal era), but the fact that a 6–4 record was a disappointment speaks for Royal's great record at Texas. After beating Oklahoma for the eighth straight time, the Longhorns lost a thrilling but heart-breaking game to Arkansas on national TV, then lost three of their next four games.

During Royal's tenure at Texas, the Longhorns have scored many "prestige" victories, including their bowl wins over Navy, Ole Miss and Alabama, plus victories over Oklahoma when the Sooners were ranked No. 1.

For the last five seasons, 1961–65, Texas has been rated No. 1 at some point during the campaign.

A native of Hollis, Okla., Royal played four seasons (1946-49) at the University of Oklahoma, where he was a top-notch quarterback, halfback and punter. At OU, he also excelled as a defensive back.

ATHLETIC ADMINISTRATION

THE ATHLETIC COUNCIL

All matters connected with the conduct of intercollegiate athletics and extramural athletics are within the jurisdiction of the Athletic Council, subject to all the University regulations relating thereto and to the General Faculty, the President and the Board of Regents.

THOMPSON

The Council is composed of nine memebers—one each from the Students' association and Ex-Students' Association, two appointed by the Board of Regents and five members of the General Faculty Standing Committee on Intercollegiate Athletics. The chairman of the faculty committee serves as chairman of the Council and also as the institution's faculty representative in the Southwest Conference.

Current chairman is J. Neils Thompson, professor of Civil Engineering and director of the Balcones Research Center and the Structural Mechanics Research Laboratory at the University.

JACK PATTERSON

Assistant Director of Athletics

In addition to his duties as Longhorn track coach, Jack Patterson has served since 1964 as assistant director of athletics.

PATTERSON

Patterson came to Texas as track coach in May of 1963 after successful tenures at the University of Houston and Baylor. A former hurdling star at Rice University (he was captain of the 1938 Owl team), Patterson coached at Merkel and San Angelo high schools before embarking upon a successful collegiate coaching career at Houston in 1945.

After 11 years as head coach of the Cougars where his sprint teams won world fame, Patterson moved to Baylor where his Bear teams garnered three Southwest Conference titles in four years. His 1966 Longhorn team won the SWC title in a smashing upset.

Patterson is a highly-sought lecturer at coaching schools and is a popular after-dinner speaker. He is noted for his fatherly approach to coaching and in the handling of his athletes.

He and Mrs. Patterson have two children—Jack, Jr., a student at Baylor, and Pamela, Austin high school student.

In The Business Office

One of the busiest places anywhere, especially during football ticket order time, is the University athletic business and ticket office in Gregory Gymnasium.

This work force is headed by Al Lundstedt, business manager and Bob Rochs, associate business manager. Other full-time personnel include Bill Ermel, Mrs. Alta Moore, Mrs. Gerry Fleming, Mrs. Sharlene Ruf, Mrs. Ina Genelle Voelker and Mrs. Geneva Kane.

STADIUM DEDICATION

Memorial Stadium was officially dedicated on Nov. 27, 1924, when the Longhorns beat Texas A&M, 7–0, but the first game in the new stadium had been played on Nov. 8, with the Longhorns losing to Baylor.

TEXAS' 1965 SEASON IN REVIEW

The 1965 football season at the University of Texas likely will be known in years to come as "The Year of the Locust." The year wound up with Texas showing a 6–4 record—and it was the first time since 1958 that the Longhorns missed out on a bowl game.

The ball had a tendency to bounce the other way for a change. No fewer than 14 opponent scores came as the result of fumbled punts (four), scrimmage fumbles (seven) and pass interceptions (three).

That's not to say that the season was without its usual quota of exciting games and fine performances.

Even though it was a loss, the Arkansas game rated as one of the best in years. Down 20–0 early in the second quarter, the Longhorns rallied to take a 24–20 lead in the fourth period, only to lose 27–24 when Arkansas staged a beat-the-clock rally of its own.

On the plus side of the 1965 ledger were a 33–7 trouncing of bowl-bound Texas Tech, UT's eighth straight victory over Oklahoma (19–0), a record-setting 35–14 beating of Baylor and a strong second-half comeback victory over Texas A&M, 21–17.

Individually, Texas got outstanding play from such excellent performers as Tommy Nobis, co-captain and all-America linebacker; Marvin Kristynik, co-captain and quarterback; Phil Harris, tailback; Pete Lammons, end; Diron Talbert, tackle, and Frank Bedrick, guard.

UT's strong freshman team, which will furnish a large number of 1966 varsity players, posted a 4-1 record. The Yearlings' only loss was to TCU in a game very similar to the varsity's loss to Arkansas.

Even though 1965 marked the first time since 1960 that a Texas team had lost more than one game in a football season, a nearly-unbelievable record for a Southwest Conference school, the Longhorns were able to establish several individual and team records, notable among them being a Kristynik-and-Lammons passing performance in the Baylor game.

ASSISTANT COACHES

CHARLEY SHIRA—The 1965 season at Texas marked the 13th year Shira has been associated with Darrell Royal. He has served as defensive line coach for Texas since Royal came to the Longhorns in 1957. Previously, Shira worked with Royal at Mississippi State and at Edmonton in the Canadian league. A native Texan, Shira was born at Aspermont on Sept. 23, 1926, and played high school football at Hamlin in West Texas, graduating in 1943. He played two years of tackle at Texas A&M before earning all-America honors at West Point where he played in 1948–50 after a 3½-year hitch in the army. He was graduated from Mississippi State in 1954. Shira was a student assistant at Tennessee in 1951 and went to Mississippi State as an assistant with Royal in 1952. Royal and Shira moved to Canada in 1953 and back to State in 1954. The capable Shira was Royal's aide at M-State in 1954 and '55 and stayed there in 1956 when Royal moved to Washington. Shira rejoined Royal at Texas in 1957 and has been with him since. Charley and his wife, Bernadette, have six children—four girls and two boys. An avid fisherman, Shira recruits in South Texas in the area between San Antonio and Corpus Christi. He also is in charge of team equipment. (Home telephone: GL 3–5875).

MIKE CAMPBELL—A former star for Ole Miss (class of 1947), Campbell has built a strong reputation for developing fine ends and linebackers for the Longhorns. Among his top proteges are Linebacking Stars Pat Culpepper, Johnny Treadwell and Tommy Nobis and Ends Charley Talbert and Ben House off the 1963 National Championship club. Campbell joined Royal at Washington in 1956 and came to Texas with him the following year. The 1966 season will mark the 11th season Campbell has served with Royal. Campbell was a successful high school coach in Mississippi after graduation, having served at Gulf Coast Military Academy, Canton and Vicksburg. He recruits in Central and West Texas and often flies his own plane around his vast territory. He was a bomber pilot during World War II. He and his wife, Mary, are the parents of twin boys, Mike and Tom, and another son, Rusty. (Home telephone: GL 3–1745).

RUSSELL COFFEE—who worked with the offensive line since 1960, will coach the defensive backs in 1966. Coffee, a successful high school coach at Weatherford, San Angelo and Lamesa, also has worked with Longhorn placekickers during his Texas tenure. A 1942 graduate of Loraine High School, Coffee served in the US Navy during WW II, then attended Abilene Christian College, graduating in 1949. He received a Master's degree from Hardin-Simmons in 1952. In his seven years at Weatherford, Coffee's teams won 48 games, lost 20, tied four and took two district championships. Eldon Mortiz, Tony Crosby and David Conway, three very successful after-point kickers for the Longhorns in recent years, were coached by Coffee. He recruits in the North East portion of Texas, a section that has spawned many Longhorn stars in recent years. (Home telephone: HI 4–5806.)

WILLIE ZAPALAC—defensive backfield coach the past two seasons, will be offensive line coach in 1966. He joined the Longhorns in 1964, coming to Texas from Oklahoma State, where he was the chief assistant. He also previously had been a highly-regarded assistant at Texas A&M for eight years and at Texas Tech for two years. Zapalac was a four-sport letterman at Bellville High School before going to Texas A&M where he was a fullback in 1941, 1942 and 1946. He scored 265 points his senior year at Bellville. He is one of the few men ever to have played in two East-West and in two College All-Star games (1943 and 1947). After graduating from A&M in 1947, Willie coached at McAllen High and Tarleton and Arlington State before going to A&M in 1953. He served under Paul "Bear" Bryant for four years at A&M. Aside from duties with the offensive line, Zapalac recruits in the Houston area. He and his wife, Dorothy, are the parents of two high school boys—Bill and Jeff—and Jill, a junior-high student. (Home telephone: HO 5-6276).

LEON MANLEY—one of three new coaches on the Longhorn staff, will work with the offensive line during the 1966 season. A hometown chum and high school and college teammate of Coach Darrell Royal, Manley served as line coach at Northeast Louisiana State College in Monroe the past several years. Manley and Royal grew up together in Hollis, Oklahoma where they played high school football. After WW II service hitches, both went to the University of Oklahoma in the fall of 1946 where they played for the next four seasons. Manley was a Sooner tackle. He played with the Green Bay Packers pro team for two years after graduation, then became head coach at McAlester, Oklahoma High School for the 1952 season. When Royal became head coach of Edmonton in the Canadian pro league, Manley joined him as a player again in 1953. Manley earned his master's at OU in 1954, then went to NE Louisiana. He's been an aide there since 1955 except for a two-year hitch at Colgate University. Leon and his wife, Johnnie, have two sons—Stan and Mark—in Austin junior high schools. (Home telephone: WA 6-1426.)

FRED AKERS—Another new UT staff member, is the offensive backfield coach of the Longhorns. The 27-year old Akers came to Texas after successful high school coaching at Lubbock High School. A former Arkansas player who graduated in 1960, Akers remained as assistant for the Razorbacks in the fall of 1960. His first high school job was as an aide at Port Arthur in 1961. He was head coach at Edinburg High in the Texas valley for three years, posting a 19-9-1 record there. His Lubbock High team in 1965 recorded seven wins and three losses and edged out Lubbock Monterey, 14-13, in the city rivalry. His team also was the only club to defeat Class AAAA state champion Odessa Permian. Akers played quarterback and defensive halfback and was a kicking specialist for the 1957-59 Razorbacks. He is married and the father of a young son and daughter. He is a native of Blytheville, Ark. (Home telephone: GR 2-5312.)

BILL ELLINGTON—Backfield coach at Texas since 1959, has assumed new duties beginning with the 1966 season. This highly successful former high school coach is the administrative assistant to Darrell Royal and also will serve as freshman coach. Ellington came to Texas from Amarillo Tascosa where he served as that school's first grid coach and athletic director. Prior to that Ellington was coach at Garland High, where his 1956 team won the state Class AAA championship. Since 1959 Ellington has worked with the offensive backs and coached the punters. Two of his most outstanding proteges were Ernie Koy and David Conway.. The latter ranked high in the nation in 1965 with a 43.3 average. A graduate of McMurry College at Abilene, Ellington and his wife, Bernice, have two sons—Tim and Jay. (Home telephone: GL 3-4569.)

TOM ELLIS—Assistant coach at Oklahoma State the past few years, will work with the Texas freshman team in 1965. A native of Cleveland, Tenn., and graduate of McMurry College in Abilene, Ellis is a former head coach at his alma mater. He holds bachelor and master's degrees from McMurry and served as head coach there for five years. He also has served as head coach at Winters High School and as an assistant at Merkel. Ellis served as an assistant at Texas A&M prior to going to Oklahoma State. He and his wife, Billie, have three children—16-year old Debbie, 11-year old Bill and 9-year old Mike (Home telephone: GL 3-5602.)

THE COUNSELOR

LAN HEWLETT (BRAIN COACH)

Serving the Longhorns as academic counselor—or "Brain Coach"—is Lan Hewlett, former high school science teacher from Lockhart. Hewlett has been with the Longhorns since the spring of 1957, shortly after Darrell Royal arrived on the Forty Acres. With increased academic standards yearly, Hewlett's role is an important one on the UT staff. Says Royal: "We're in complete accord with the increased standards of the University, and feel that since Lan joined our staff, the standards of our athletes have increased along with those of the school. We are losing fewer and fewer boys as a result of the increased standards in the classrooms."

THE TRAINER

FRANK MEDINA

One of the nation's outstanding trainers, The University of Texas' Frank Medina came by his rewards through hard work and the application of science to the training room.

In his 21st season with the Longhorns, Medina has served as one of the United States trainers for the 1948 Olympic team and as trainer of the West team in the annual January 1 East-West classic at San Francisco. In addition, he was the 1954 recipient of the Trainer of the Year Award of the Rockne Club of Kansas City, Mo., and trainer in 1958 for the U. S. track team that competed against Russia.

At Texas, he has introduced physiotherapy and diathermy into the training room as well as other scientific equipment and measures which have reduced minor injuries and expedited the return of athletes to their sport.

THE EQUIPMENT SUPERVISOR

JIMMY BLAYLOCK

Handling of all University athletic equipment is in the capable hands of Jimmy Blaylock, supervisor of athletic equipment since 1949. Jimmy is in charge of all uniforms and other gear worn and used by the UT athletes and sees that the equipment is properly cared for and gets to the site of Longhorn "away" games.

DIRON TALBERT

All-America Candidate

There's been a Texas City Talbert playing for Texas ever since Darrell Royal became head coach in 1957. Diron will play his final year for the Longhorns this fall, ending the string of Talberts. Don was first and he became an all-America tackle in 1961. Then came Charley, a fine end on the 1963 National Championship club. Diron was last but he's probably the best of the bunch. There was another Talbert—Paul—but he went to the University of Colorado.

Diron was an offensive tackle and defensive guard in the one-platoon days but since the Longhorns have gone two-platoon, the 6-5, 235-pound Diron will be a defensive specialist and switches from a tackle to a guard . . . great competitor who is strong, agile and mobile . . . elected one of three tri-captains by his teammates in the spring . . . has quick reactions and good range . .. has had two great seasons and should have his best year in 1966 . . . has lot's of stamina . . . does everything an all-America lineman does well . . . a fine all-around defensive player . . . fights off blockers with the best . . . good pass rusher . . . breaks down into his stance like a shot-gun . . . physical education major.

CONSENSUS ALL-AMERICAS

The Longhorns have had 21 all-America selections since Mal Kutner and Chal Daniel became the first ones in 1941. Of this total, seven have been consensus picks—named to all or most of the several all-America teams picked.

Tommy Nobis, great linebacking guard is the seventh consensus all-America and fourth Longhorn in a row to make it.

Nobis follows Tackle Scott Appleton, 1963; Guard Johnny Treadwell, 1962; Back James Saxton, 1961; End Carlton Massey, 1953; Guard Bud McFadin, 1950; and End Hub Bechtol, 1946.

THE LONGHORN BAND

VINCENT R. DiNINO, Director

An old hand at national television appearances, the Texas Longhorn band makes its 1966 debut on national TV again this fall when it appears between halves of the Texas-Southern California game at Austin on Sept. 17.

DINING

Under the direction of Vincent R. DiNino, who is in his second decade of directing the 265-piece band, the "Show Band of the Southwest" was featured in the 1961 Presidential Inaugural parade and San Antonio's famous Battle of Flowers and has been on many national and regional TV games.

1966 band officers:

President—Tommy Cowan, Austin; First Counselor—Kathy Lohr, Austin; Second Counselor—Allen Boggs, Richardson; Third Counselor—Clem Kirkland, Menard; Fourth Counselor—Nancy McGehee, Dallas.

Feature Twirler—Lynn Kohleberg, New Braunfels.

Drum Major—Dick Robinson, Sherman.

Texas Stars—Sallie Bett Latham, San Antonio; Gloria Swerk, San Antonio; Mary Ann Nelson, Andrews; Emma Lea King, Austin; Sharon Anderson, Austin and Jo Ann Shaw, Bonham.

Head Drum Wrangler of "Big Bertha" is Richard Deweese of Lewisville.

John F. Edmunds is assistant director.

Membership in the Longhorn Band is open to any high school graduate or UT student in good standing. Requirements include an audition and an interview with the director.

One of the Longhorn Band's big moments of the year comes during "Band Day" on the UT campus, when some 80 to 90 high school bands are in Austin as guests of the Longhorn Band. This year's Band Day will be held on Oct. 1, when Texas plays Indiana at Memorial Stadium.

BIGGEST DRUM—'BIG BERTHA'

The world's largest bass drum, "Big Bertha," is a standout attraction whenever the Longhorn Band is in evidence. Presented to the Band in 1955 by Col. D. Harold Byrd of Dallas, Big Bertha is eight feet in diameter, 54 inches in width and weighs 500 pounds. Four bandsmen, known as "Drum Wranglers," take care of the monster.

1964 WAS CROWD PACE-SETTER

The 1964 Longhorns established a new school attendance record by pulling in 657,004 fans in the 11 games. It marked the third year for a Longhorn team to draw in excess of 600,000 fans.

The 1964 attendance broke the old record of 612,038 for the unbeaten 1962 team.

300-POINT TEAMS

Texas has had four 300-point football teams—1914 (the record 358 points), 1915 (335), 1941 (338) and 1961 (303).

PLENTY OF ORANGE TOWERS

Texas has won more Southwest Conference championships than any other school (13), played in more post-season games than any other (14) and in 73 years of intercollegiate football has had only seven losing seasons.

The Longhorns' fantastic winning percentage of .715 represents an average of better than a 7-3 record based on 467 wins, 178 losses and 27 ties. Texas also ranks far ahead of all SWC teams in conference games with 178 loop wins, 94 defeats and 13 ties for .647 percentage.

Highlight of the University's football history is the 1963 season. That was the year the Longhorns won 11 straight games and the National Championship. That was the year of Scott Appleton, Tommy Ford, Duke Carlisle and teammates; of the big wins over Oklahoma and Navy; of the close call over Baylor, and the come-from-behind victory over A&M.

Five of the losing seasons at Texas came during the depression year of the 1930's and helped bring to the Forty Acres one of the game's great names—D. X. Bible. Texas shocked the grid world in 1937 when it announced the hiring of Bible to a 10-year contract at $15,000 per year. Bible put winning football back in force at Texas and served the school with distinction for a quarter of a century.

During Bible's 10 years of active coaching, the Orange and White won 63 games, lost 31 and tied three and won three conference titles. This era also produced UT's first bowl games, the 'Horns going to the Cotton Bowl classic in 1943, '44 and '46.

Texas has had several great coaching regimes but none can surpass the current one of Darrell Royal, brought to the campus in 1957 to rebuild the sagging UT grid fortunes.

In Royal's nine years as Texas coach, his teams have won 75 games, lost but 19 and tied three, and have brought the school four conference titles, seven bowl games and the school's first national championship. Royal's record of 45 conference wins already exceeds the previous record of 35 held by Bible's teams.

Other great coaching eras at UT include the Dave Allerdice years of 1911–15, during which time Texas produced a 33-7 record; the Berry Whitaker years of 1920–22 (22-3-1 including an 8-1-1 SWC record); the Clyde Littlefield span of 1927-33, during which time UT won two SWC titles and had a 44-18-6 record, and the Blair Cherry period of 1947-50 (32-10-1).

The Longhorns have won many so-called "prestige" games, the latest being the 1965 Orange Bowl victory over Alabama and the 1964 Cotton Bowl win over Navy.

Two other "big wins" came during the Royal regime of recent years. The toppling of Oklahoma in 1963 ranks as one of the all-time victories while the 12-7 Cotton Bowl win over a great Ole Miss team (Jan. 1, 1962) is another.

Although by no means a complete list, here are some of UT's biggest "prestige" wins:

1939 Arkansas game—This one changed Texas grid psychology from a losing attitude to a winning one. Texas football was in the throes of one losing year after another. Arkansas was leading 13–7 with 15 seconds to go and Texas had the ball on its own 29-yard line. Jack Crain took a pass from R. B. Patrick and went 71 yards for a touchdown. When Crain crossed the goal-line the game had ended and after he added the winning point, UT football changed from a loser to a winner.

As Bible says: "Things had been going pretty badly up to that game. I was given to doubt through 1937 and 1938, but we had always kept plugging. Crain's play changed our whole outlook—mine, the players', the student body's, the ex-students'. We had tasted the fruits of victory and we were on the way."

1941 Oregon game—Many experts called the 1941 UT team one of the greatest ever assembled, but first Baylor (7-7 tie), then TCU (7-13 loss), slipped up on the 'Horns. The two stings kept Texas out of the Rose Bowl. Oregon had barely missed out on a Rose Bowl bid by losing to Oregon State, 16-20. The Longhorns took out all their frustrations on the Webfoots to the tune of 71-7.

1936, 1938 and 1940 A&M games at Memorial Stadium—These three games kept intact UT's jinx over the Aggies at home even though A&M was highly favored each time. The 1936 Texas team had won just one game going into the Turkey Day battle but emerged victorious, 7-0. The '38 Texas club had lost eight in a row before edging out the Aggies, 7-6. And the 1940 team kept A&M out of the Rose Bowl with a 7-0 upset over an Aggie club that had won 19 in a row.

1958 Oklahoma game—The Sooners had won seven in a row over the Longhorns and had given Texas a definite losing complex when Royal's fighting 'Horns came from behind to take a 15-14 victory that started Texas out on a win streak of its own against Oklahoma.

1934 Notre Dame game—In addition to being one of Texas' treasured victories, this 7-6 UT win at Notre Dame stadium brought national recognition to the Southwest Conference. Bohn Hilliard, one of Texas's greatest backs, scored the winning touchdown while two other UT immortals—Charles Coates and Jack Gray—had starring roles.

1946 Cotton Bowl, 1948 Sugar Bowl, 1949 Orange Bowl—Bobby Layne and his passing artistry led Texas to a 40-27 victory over Missouri after the 1945 season and again to a 27-7 upset over the Harry Gilmer-led Alabama team in the 1948 Sugar Bowl. Randy Clay was a star when Texas beat a great Georgia team, 41-28, in the 1949 Orange Bowl.

1962 Cotton Bowl—Texas had recently lost major bowl contests to Ole Miss and Syracuse. Royal considers the 12-7 victory over a strong Ole Miss club one of the top prestige wins of his career. QB Mike Cotten, HB Jack Collins and End Bob Moses were outstanding.

1963 Oklahoma game—The Sooners were ranked No. 1 nationally when an underdog Longhorn team rolled to an impressive 28-7 victory that put Texas in the No. 1 spot for the rest of the season. QB Duke Carlisle, HB Tommy Ford and Tackle Scott Appleton were the stars.

1964 Cotton Bowl—Navy, with Heisman Trophy winner Roger Staubach, had challenged Texas' national championship before a national television audience and in the nation's press. Carlisle, Ford, Phil Harris and Appleton led a great Texas team to a 28-6 win that nailed down and let Texas "keep" its national championship.

1965 Orange Bowl—Alabama was the national champion with 10 wins and Texas knocked the Tide over, 21-17, behind the great play of Ernie Koy, George Sauer, Tommy Nobis, et al. Texas held off the Joe Namath-led Tide with a super goal-line stand in the fourth quarter.

Admittedly, it hasn't all been success. There have been days Texas fans would rather forget—such as TCU's 6-0 upset in 1961, Arkansas' wins in 1964 and '65 and Oklahoma's 14-13 victory in 1950, all of which probably cost national titles; Rice's 18-13 win in 1946; Notre Dame's 14-3 victory in 1952, and that tie and that loss in 1941.

But, as that .715 winning percentage might suggest, Longhorn fans probably have fewer gray hairs and ulcers than do fans of most universities. And then there's all those Orange Towers after winning football games.

MILESTONE VICTORIES

Texas' football teams have scored 467 victories through the years. Important milestones in that successful record have been as follows:

Victory No.	Year, Game No.	Opponent and Score
50	1902, first	Oklahoma, 23-6
100	1910, sixth	Baylor, 1-0
150	1918, fifth	Oklahoma State, 27-5
200	1925, seventh	Baylor, 13-3
250	1933, seventh	SMU, 10-0
300	1943, fourth	Arkansas, 34-0
350	1949, tenth	Texas A&M, 42-14
400	1958, second	Tulane, 21-20

LONGHORN WEIGHT ROOM

Tommy Souders, sophomore offensive tackle from San Antonio, is shown working out in the Longhorn weight room on the University campus. He's working on the universal gym under the supervision of Stan Burnham, UT's supervisor of weight training and physical rehabilitation. Burnham, who has his doctor's degree in physical training, is a former college basketball coach who has earned an outstanding reputation for his work on injury rehabilitation and is regarded as one of the best "knee" men in college athletic circles in the country.

THEY WEREN'T EVEN CLOSE

The University of Texas has had some one-sided games on its schedule during the long UT football history, both winning and losing by large margins.

Texas' biggest victory, pointwise, came on a 92-0 romp over Daniel Baker in 1915. The worst setback was dealt, 68-0, by Chicago to the 1904 Longhorns who, curiously, allowed seven other rivals a total of 20 points.

Margin-wise, these have been the top 10 victories and defeats:

TEXAS FRESHMAN FOOTBALL RESULTS

Texas freshmen, or Yearlings, played their first games with outside teams in 1915. Prior to that the frosh played only other classes at the University.

The frosh, or Yearlings, are not to be confused with the Shorthorns—the B-squad of varsity eligibles.

x—Co-champion. y—This marked first time in SWC history for school to repeat as undisputed football champion.

NOTE—Texas also had best SWC record in 1916 (5-1-0) and 1918 (4-0-0); however no championships were awarded those years.

TEXAS' SCHOOL COLORS

The colors Orange and White were officially adopted on May 10, 1900, after a three-cornered fight between students at the Main University, the School of Medicine and ex-students. The colors were first used in the spring of 1884 when a special train of students went to Georgetown for a baseball game with Southwestern.

LAST YEAR'S GAME

Did not play.

Texas has played USC twice previously—at Los Angeles in 1955 and at Austin in 1956. The Trojans won both games.

THIS YEAR'S OUTLOOK

Loss of Heisman Trophy winner Mike Garrett necessitates a rebuilding job at Southern California. Only one offensive line starter is returning.

"A green but spirited club" is the way USC backers describe the 1966 Trojans.

That teminology may apply on offense, but Troy goes to the post well-equipped defensively. Seven defensive starters return.

LAST YEAR'S GAME

Texas completely dominated play through three quarters and scored a convincing 33-7 victory over Texas Tech before a capacity crowd at Memorial Stadium.

Les Derrick took a lateral from Pete Lammons for UT's touchdown in the first quarter, then caught a scoring pass from Marvin Kristynik in the second. The Longhorns wrapped it up with three touchdowns in the third.

The Longhorns gained 259 yards rushing to Tech's 45, but Red Raider passing success cut UT's total offense margin to 370-270.

When kicker David Conway missed his conversion try after Texas' fourth TD, it ended the Longhorns' national record string of 61 consecutive extra points by kicking.

Texas	7	6	20	0-33
Texas Tech	0	0	0	7-7

Scoring Play	Time Remaining
UT—Derrick 13 lateral from Lammons (Conway kick); 59 yards in 5 plays following punt	1Q, 9:09
UT—Derrick 12 pass from Kristynik (pass failed); 37 yards in 10 plays following recovered fumble	2Q, 2:34
UT—Stockton 1 run (Conway kick); 57 yards in 11 plays following punt	3Q, 9:11
UT—Lott 3 run (kick failed); 38 yards in 9 plays following recovered fumble	3Q, 3:12
UT—Owens 4 run (Conway kick); 33 yards in 2 plays following interception	3Q, 2:00
TT—Leinert 46 pass from Wilson (Bearden kick); 60 yards in 3 plays following punt	4Q, 4:33

THIS YEAR'S OUTLOOK

Another good team if efforts to develop quarterbacking and linebacking in spring training were successful. Even optimistic Tech fans do not see, however, a team as strong as the '65 Raiders.

Tech apparently has a stronger offensive line than last year, which may result in the running game being stronger.

It will be a physically stronger team, although much of the heft will be of the sophomore variety.

LAST YEAR'S GAME

A victory that was to prove costly saw the Longhorns beat Indiana, 27-12 before some 57,000 fans at Memorial Stadium.

Several Texas fans came out of the game with various kinds of injuries that were destined to be harmful later in the season.

The Longhorns, who had a 365-291 advantage in total offense, scored twice within the last 7½ minutes of the second period to wrap up the victory.

UT—Harris 4 run (conway kick); 66 yards in 10 plays following kickoff	1Q, 10:39
IU—Malinchak 7 pass from Stavroff (kick failed); 85 yards in 11 plays following punt	2Q, 12:41
UT—Derrick 3 run (Conway kick); 73 yards in 15 plays following kickoff	2Q, 7:32
UT—Stockton 1 run (kick failed); 68 yards in 5 plays following punt	2Q, 2:23
IU—Malinchak 62 pass from Stavroff (pass failed); 72 yards in 3 plays following punt	3Q, 7:47
UT—Gennusa 9 pass from Kristynik (kick failed); 86 yards in 10 plays following punt	3Q, 1:57

THIS YEAR'S OUTLOOK

Hoosiers should be tough on offense with virtually same offensive unit back. better for the year's experience, but defense has to be rebuilt almost completely with only two returnees from No. 1 unit. Offensively the team is big and strong with good running, passing and receiving. Biggest lack is a breakaway back. Defense will be smaller but quicker and more agile and with perhaps as many as four sophomores, highly inexperienced.

The Longhorns held Oklahoma to six first downs and outgained the Sooners, 379-114, in total offense. OU didn't make a first down during the first half.

Oklahoma never penetrated the Texas 20.

THIS YEAR'S OUTLOOK

Coach Jim Mackenzie—"I feel we accomplished a great deal in spring practice. We know now who can play at what position. The boys know what we want and what we think it takes to win. I'm especially pleased with their attitude.

"We have three glaring weaknesses—lack of speed and quickness in both the offensive and defensive line, lack of depth everywhere except possibly in the secondary and lack of an experienced quarterback.

"We have yet to find consistent performers at defensive end, offensive center, offensive guard and linebacker."

THIS YEAR'S OUTLOOK

Arkansas, which hasn't lost a Southwest Conference football game since 1963, goes into the 1966 season with prospects for another outstanding season.

Bolstered by four returning all-conference players, the Razorbacks almost surely will go to the post this fall as SWC favorites. They return five offensive and six defensive starters.

With flocks of veterans and good young talent available, few chinks appear in the Razorbacks' armor this season. They could be outstanding.

LAST YEAR'S GAME

Arkansas staged the final comeback and beat Texas, 27-24, in one of the wildest football games ever played in the Southwest Conference. Fittingly, this one was on national television.

A fumble-plagued Longhorn team found itself down by a 20-0 score early in the second quarter.

Quarterback Marvin Kristynik engineered a marvelous Texas comeback that eventually netted the Longhorns a 24-20 lead with just 4:06 left to play.

Arkansas, however, took the ensuing kickoff and drove 80 yards for the winning score, getting it with a minute and 32 seconds remaining.

Texas had a 23-12 lead in first downs and a hefty 401-181 margin in total offense.

LAST YEAR'S GAME

Rice rallied strongly in the second half to upset the Longhorns, 20-17, as some 63,000 looked on at Memorial Stadium.

Texas lost the ball four times on fumbles and interceptions. The last mistake, an interception, led to a field goal with 43 seconds remaining that gave Rice its winning points.

Rice led in total offense, 273-236.

THIS YEAR'S OUTLOOK

On paper, Rice looks below par for 1966.

The trouble is—the Owls don't play their games on paper. And, when you get them on grass, they have a tendency to be a most upsetting outfit.

And Rice will be going all out to make Coach Jess Neely's last season a memorable one.

The Owls won't win the 1966 championship, but they'll have a say about who does.

LAST YEAR'S GAME

Marvin Kristynik and Pete Lammons played a record-breaking game of throw-and-catch and sparked the Longhorns to a lopsided 35-14 victory over Baylor.

Texas, which had a 427-326 lead in total offense, did all its scoring in the first half.

Lammons caught three touchdown passes to set a Texas school record.

Kristynik's three TD throws tied a school record.

And the team total of four touchdowns by passing tied another school mark.

THIS YEAR'S OUTLOOK

Baylor feels it will be improved this fall over the crippled squad that tied for fourth in 1965 and finished with a final 5-5 reading.

Bears return seven offensive starters, eight defensive starters, and with return of QB Terry Southall, who missed all of Bears' Conference games with broken leg last year, expect to have their usual potent passing attack.

Bruins feel they have very good receiving to go with passers Southall and Ken Stockdale, who took Baylor to three late season victories in 1965.

Baylor also returns most of last year's stout defensive line, but claims problems with green offensive line and defense against passing.

LAST YEAR'S GAME

TCU's Bruce Alford set a Southwest Conference record as he kicked four field goals to lead the Frogs to a 25-10 victory over the Longhorns. TCU scored 10 points in the final quarter to wrap it up.

Once again, the Longhorns were plagued by mistakes. They lost four fumbles and had a pass intercepted. Those mistakes overcame UT's 360-283 margin in total offense.

TC—Alford 27 field goal; 82 yards in 13 plays following punt	2Q, 14:30
UT—Stockton 1 run (Conway kick); 63 yards in 5 plays following punt	3Q, 11:05
TC—Alford 41 field goal; 24 yards in 4 plays following recovered fumble	3Q, 8:38
TC—D. Smith 3 pass from Landon (run failed); 37 yards in 5 plays following recovered fumble	3Q, 0:07

TC—Post 10 run (Alford kick); 16 yards in 2 plays following interception	4Q, 4:55

THIS YEAR'S OUTLOOK

TCU will be better, although its record could be worse than last fall's 6-4 because of its rugged schedule.

Good defensive experience will help, but that could be counterbalanced by a lack of offensive line depth. Overall, the TCU defense will be strong—especially in the secondary, where all starters return.

THIS YEAR'S OUTLOOK

Texas A&M, on the basis of overall talent, will be improved this season, but will be quite young and inexperienced. As many as seven sophomores will start on defense and possibly three on offense.

The Aggies will be bigger and faster and will have more depth than they did last season.

In Maurice (Mo) Moorman, 6-5, 248-pound offensive tackle and defensive middle guard, A&M may well have one of the best linemen in the country.

An excellent (and typical) attitude and strong competitiveness are other A&M strong points.

LAST YEAR'S GAME

Another great second-half comeback gave Texas a 21-17 season-ending victory over Texas A&M after the Longhorns had been held scoreless and rocked back on their heels through the first half.

A 91-yark trick pass play sparked A&M to a 17-point outburst in the second quarter.

But the Aggies were denied their first win over Texas since 1956 when Jim Helms helped lead Texas to another of its typical strong finishes against A&M.

The 1957 Longhorns ranked 11th in both AP and UP polls and lost to seventh-ranked Mississippi in the Sugar Bowl.

O.U. TROPHY—BRONZE HAT

Emblematic of victory in the annual Texas-Oklahoma football game, the Bronze Hat was donated to the two schools by the State Fair of Texas in 1941. An exact replica of the famed "ten-gallon" cowboy hat, the trophy is retained by the winning school each year. The trophy includes small bronze football-shaped plaques around the edges, bearing the year and the score of the annual intersectional clash.

ALMA MATER—"THE EYES OF TEXAS"

"The Eyes of Texas" was written in 1903 by John Lang Sinclair, who wrote it for a minstrel show as a satire on Dr. Lambdin Prather, then president of the University. Dr. Prather had attended Washington and Lee when General Robert E. Lee was president. General Lee, it was said, when he addressed the student body always mentioned "the eyes of the South are upon you." Dr. Prather often quoted it, confining it only to Texas. There was a standing joke among the students about Dr. Prather's "all-seeing eyes." At the minstrel, the song (written to the tune of "I've Been Working on the Railroad") became a tremendous hit and was sung far into the night. Gradually, it became the school song and the unofficial song of the state.

WHAT EVER HAPPENED TO . . . ?

The University of Texas fielded its first football team in 1893. Since that time, hundreds of men have worn the Orange and White. Its impossible to keep in touch with all the old Longhorns, but it might be interesting to see what some of them are doing these days.

LONGHORN HALL OF HONOR

One of The University of Texas' newer—but one of its most cherished—athletic tradiations is the Longhorn Hall of Honor.

Each year, four former Longhorn athletic greats are immortalized by election to the Longhorn Hall of Honor.

The governing body, the Longhorn Hall of Honor Council, is made up exclusively of men who have letter at The University of Texas. The Council is in charge of all arrangements for the vote of lettermen and for the installation banquet.

Mounted silver scrolls, which carry the announcement that they are presented "in recognition of those qualities that brought credit and renown to The University of Texas," are presented to the honorees.

In addition, large portraits of the honorees are hung in the beautiful Lettermen's Lounge at Memorial Stadium.

The Hall of Honor, although it won't celebrate its 10th anniversary until November, already has become one of the most-copied programs of its kind in the country—and, with each passing year, it means more and more to all the men who have been, and who continue to be, Texas Longhorns.

AN EARLY LOOK AT BASKETBALL

"We're in better shape as regards experience than were were a year ago, but we're still hurting inside."

That's an analysis, in one sentence, by Coach Harold Bradley of Texas' 1966–67 basketball prospects.

Bradley and Assistant Coach Leon Black will have available nine lettermen from the 1966 squad that put on another strong finish. But they'll still be missing the one proved tall man—almost a necessity in basketball these days.

It took a lot of experimenting last season, and for a long time it appeared Texas was on its way toward its first losing season since 1959. But the Longhorns finished with a 7–3 record in February and March to pull the season record to a breakeven 12–12.

Texas was 7–7 in conference, tying for fourth place. That was a much better finish than had been expected. At least one pre-season poll had doomed the '66 Longhorns to seventh place.

Key men scheduled to return for the 1966–67 season include Dale Dotson, a member of the Longhorn 300 Club and the No. 2 scorer last season; Noel Stout, the No. 3 scorer who hit 33 points against Texas A&M, and Mike Gammon, playmaking guard who was slowed much of the year with injuries.

Several other holdovers who gained valuable experience last season (including such men as Gary Overbeck, Billy Arnold and Larry Lake) should help the Longhorns quite a bit. The top sophomore prospect (from a freshman team that surprised everyone by posting a 6–6 record, much better than anticipated) appears to be guard Larry Smith of Dallas.

The 1966–67 season will be highlighted by Texas' return to the All-College Tournament at Oklahoma City, plus an appearance in the Arizona State Tournament in Tempe. Also included will be the usual 14-game Southwest Conference schedule.

The season will open Dec. 2, with the Longhorns hosting Texas Wesleyan. SWC action begins on Jan. 3, when Arkansas visits Gregory Gymnasium. And the windup game is scheduled against SMU in Dallas on March 2.

66 FOR LITTLEFIELD

BRIEF S.W.C. HISTORY

The Southwest Conference first saw the light of day on May 6, 1914, when representatives of eight universities met at Dallas to consider the formation of such a league. The conference became an actuality on Dec. 8, 1914, when eight schools—not in all instances the same eight—accepted the conference's provisions and became charter members.

The first SWC title ever awarded was in the 1915 basketball season. Other championships awarded during the conference's first year included football, track and baseball. Other sports were added as follows: tennis in 1916, cross country in 1920, golf in 1925, swimming in 1930 and fencing—since discontinued—in 1938.

Only three members of the Southwest Conference—Texas, Arkansas and Texas A&M—have competed in every football season, Rice, a charter member, passed up two seasons (1943–44) during World War II; SMU joined the conference in 1918; TCU joined the SWC in 1923, and Texas Tech—admitted to membership in 1956—began conference football competition in 1960.

Oklahoma, Oklahoma A&M (now State), Southwestern and Phillips University also competed briefly during the first few years of conference play in football.

The conference affiliated with the Cotton Bowl in 1940, and in 1942 passed a rule making it impossible for the SWC football champion to play in any other bowl game.

1918 TEAM 'HOMERS'

The 1918 Texas team set something of a record. It played eight of its nine games at Austin. The only road trip resulted in a 14–0 victory over Rice at Houston.

TEXAS TRADITIONS

NEW MASCOT—BEVO IX

The University of Texas will have a new mascot this fall—Bevo IX, a Texas Longhorn steer whose colors are (would you be surprised?) orange and white.

Bevo IX is the third mascot the University has had in less than a year.

Docile old Bevo VII, in his eighth year as the Texas mascot, developed an arthritic condition last fall. That ailment necessitated his being replaced by a "temporary" mascot, Bevo VIII.

But Bevo VIII, also known as "Old Will," was too unruly to remain as the University mascot.

The new Bevo IX is a youngster. He was born in February at the Albany State Park—and comes from the stock line that has furnished most of the previous Bevos.

UT's Bevos date from 1916, when Bevo I made his appearance during the Texas A&M-Texas game at Austin. That first mascot, much the same as some of his successors, had a short career. Bevo I was branded by some Aggies and later (1921) was served as steak at an A&M-Texas get-together.

The Bevos disappeared for a while after that.

Bevo II served a one-year hitch in 1936. But he was a Hereford, anyhow.

Bevo III, who actually was a blue ribbon stock show winner, also served for only one year (1945).

Bevo IV, one of the stampeding kind, lasted as mascot from 1949 to 1951, when his temper caused his dismissal.

Bevo V, bought as a calf in 1951, served as mascot through 1954.

Bevo VI, about as ill-tempered as any ofthe mascots, nevertheless snorted through three full years (1954–57), before giving away to the "longest tenure" of them all, Bevo VII.

Then came last year's appearance by Bevo VIII—and now the newest in the herd, Bevo IX.

The mascots are sponsored by the Silver Spurs, a men's honorary organization. They are loaned to the University by the State of Texas with the understanding that they will be retired after a reasonable period of time.

NICKNAME—LONGHORNS

Mr. D. A. Frank (1903–1905) is the source of how The University of Texas teams became known as "Longhorns." He related in a 1943 letter to "The Firing Line" column of "The Daily Texan" that Alex Weisburg in 1903 was editor-in-chief of The Texan and one day told Mr. Frank, "D. A., hereafter in every sports article call the team 'The Longhorns' and we'll soon have it named." These instructions were followed and passed down for several years, according to Mr. Frank, and "along about 1906 or 1907, the name became official. . . ."

VICTORY SIGNAL—THE TOWER

Traditionally, the Main Building ("The Tower") at The University of Texas is bathed in orange lights following a football victory or other outstanding athletic achievement (SWC and NCAA championships, national playoff victories, etc.), as well as special University occasions and holidays.

The entire building is lighted orange for Thanksgiving Day football victories only; the Tower shaft is white and the Tower orange for the achievements noted in the preceding paragraph, and the Tower shaft is white and the Tower alternately orange and white on nights of tie football games or ties for SWC championships.

Standing 27 stories tall, the Tower serves as a beacon of UT's athletic success in Austin and for many miles in every direction.
